CLEMONS REAL ESTATE LLC

Joshua is a commercial real estate professional with a strong foundation in real estate financing. While relatively new to the commercial brokerage sector, he brings extensive knowledge from years in real estate finance, which provides a unique perspective when working with clients.

Joshua joined Clemons Real Estate in 2024, a firm renowned for its decades of experience and success in Kansas City, the surrounding region, and nationally. The firm's broad portfolio of projects has given him access to invaluable industry insights and the opportunity to learn from seasoned professionals.

By combining his financial expertise with the firm's extensive industry experience, Joshua is eager to help clients navigate the commercial real estate landscape with a focus on personalized service and sound investment strategies.

Joshua is excited to be part of the dynamic growth happening in Kansas City and beyond, and looks forward to contributing to the continued success of Clemons Real Estate.
